Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Hargrave had as their guests on Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Hargrave and Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Sissons.

Mr. Alf Osgood, who has been in Edmonton undergoing treatment for some time, passed through Redcliff Sunday morning for Medicine Hat.

Miss Annie Schneider had the misfortune to break her arm when she was thrown from the wagon by a runaway team while coming into Redcliff one day last week.

Jimmy Mackenzie, 9 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Mackenzie, sent radio greetings over the Pelican Man's program from Calgary on Wednesday to his friends in Redcliff.

Persons intending to send Christmas parcels to the Old Country would be wise to get their mailing as early as possible. Owing to existing conditions on the high seas, schedules for the departure of vessels will not be resumed, so mailing should be done early enough to allow for unforeseen delays which might occur.

Apples are now at their best in Canada—They are good as fresh fruit and for cooking.

Miss Beatie Owen of Stittville was the guest of Miss Kate Mathen for a few days this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Jno. Allanbach had as their guests last week, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Allanbach, Chris, and Bob from northern Saskatchewan.

Friends will be glad to learn that Miss Eva Lien and little Kathleen Kitchen, who were taken to the Medicine Hat hospital yesterday are both doing well.

A certain magistrate was once discussing beverages with a fellow club member. "Have you ever tried wrong drink?" asked the young fellow. "No replied the magistrate, but I've tried a lot of folks who have."

Right here where hard wheat is grown and flour manufactured bread is now selling for 10c a loaf. Out in Vancouver where the baker has to pay the freight on the wheat or the flour, the price has been dropped recently to 8c a loaf. How Come?

The Lotus school and teachers have been removed to the Kingsville present school site. It will be renovated and used for school purposes. The old Kingsville school will be enlarged by the Kingsville Recreation Club and used as a recreation hall.

Through the kind offices of Mr. H. S. Farrier, ten boxes of apples have been released from the Dominion Agricultural Stores here to teachers of rural schools in this district for the children at the Christmas Tree entertainments in their respective districts. This is good evidence of the Christmas spirit and will no doubt be greatly appreciated by those affected.
